You don't want to see him. They whispered, leaning in.
He's silent! Another cat crowed.
He'll kill you. An apprentice murmured to zer friend.
He'll steal you away from the camp. She muttered.

Firestar looked down at the cats, huddled together in the crisp darkness of the gathering, moonbeams streaming down and highlighting the floor. He watched as the cats gradually grew louder until the entire gathering was uttering things above and under others with a hint of worry- who was this cat? What were they doing to his clan?

He clears his throat as Tallstar, thin and as lean as the wind, curls his tail closer to his body. Tigerstar watched the groups, frowning. "Firestar." He starts, gruff. "Do you know of this...cat?" The large, tabby tom sweeps his paw in the air towards the congregation. Firestar sighs. "No, Tigerstar."

The ginger casts his deep green eyes across the clans. "Clans, do you know of this strange cat?"

In Riverclan, a shecat stands up and her fur bristles. "He's not a cat!" She spits. "He's an eagle that took cat form!" Behind her, two apprentices nod at each other, presenting something towards the shecat. She takes it, holding it high in the air, only a few seconds before the moon illuminates it-- a feather.

An eagle feather.

A gasp rolls through the gathering, with medicine cats glancing up towards the sky, as if trying to figure out what omen Starclan has brought upon them tonight. One gasp is cut off, and Tallstar perks his ears towards the forest, eyes wide.

Slowly, a trickle of red rolls down the rocks and into the gathering, pooling from pure white feet that disappear within moments, as if it wasn't really there. A medic murmurs, pointing with her dark grey tail. "Starclan's own." She decrees, Firestar falling silent.

"No," Tigerstar growls. "No, he is not."

There's a flash of white, followed by the soft but stinging scent of eagle, and Firestar whips around. He catches the tip of a long furred white tail, feathers growing from the base and trailing down towards the end.

His eyes widen.

A cat- a lean tom, feathers curled into his fur, and the eyes like the deepest part of the river. The tom stares. He stares.

They dare not break contact. The white tom leaps into the top branch of a tree, silent as an owl, still focused on Firestar. He takes a deep breath, eyes flicking to Tigerstar, who was glaring at him expectantly.

That proved to be the breaking move.

There was a loud crunch, before all Firestar saw was the mangled body of Tigerstar falling into the clan. In his place, stand the cat. His whiskers twitch, before he leaps back into those trees, as fast as a flick of lightning.

Firestar- no, everybody- doesn't walk alone.

Starclan's Eagle would get you. Dispose of you. Make sure you never returned.

And he would do it silently.

I've never read Warrior Cats (Or was it Warriors?) But I love it! Is it a story or roleplay?
